BIOGRAPHY

Dave Scott-Morgan (aka Dave Morgan), lead vocalist and songwriter of MOrganisation, has a musical past that hails from the 'Brum-beat' groups of the 60/70's - including THE UGLY'S (guitar), MAGNUM (bass).

Dave's first album was produced by Lou Reizner and issued on the US Ampex label as MORGAN in 1971 while Dave was touring America as a folk singer. Dave's songs brought him wider notice when recorded by numerous groups such as THE MOVE, who recorded Something (B-side to the number one hit Blackberry Way); and This Time Tomorrow. The song Hiroshima has twice been a hit in Europe, by the British group WISHFUL THINKING, and lastly in 1990/91 reaching No.4 in the German charts, sung by the German artist SANDRA.

From 1981 to 1986 Dave was part of the ELECTRIC LIGHT ORCHESTRA group (guitar, synth, vocoder + back-up vocals). He is credited on ELO's album Secret Messages and also on Jeff Lynne's Armchair Theatre solo album, released in 1990.

Dave's long time collaboration with Richard Tandy (ELO's keyboard player) resulted in many recordings of his songs: the concept album Earth Rise; the single Berlin and, with guitarist Martin Smith, the charity single Action (produced by Jeff Lynne); and BC Collection CD. In 2011 Earth Rise was remixed, repackaged and re-released on the ROCK LEGACY label.

Dave began writing inspirational songs after becoming a Christian and released the CD CALL in 1997, including a track titled God's Good Time, produced by Jeff Lynne. Two further inspirational CD albums, Long Way Home and Angel Light were released in 1999 and 2002 respectively. Together with his wife Mandy, and keyboard player Alan Smith Dave often sings at Christian events in England and abroad.

In 2012 Across the Divide was released, an album of songs written over several decades, with a range of genres and musicians. In the same year Dave published his autobiography Patterns in the Chaos.

In 2016 Dave produced two albums - Wall to Wall which represents his fourth CD of inspirational music and Bubbles, a collection of original rock/pop songs so called because of the musical interludes bubbling up between the tracks!!.

Two years later Dave produced the 5 song E.P. Highland inspired by time spent in the western highlands of Scotland and in 2019 he released his 7th secular album Seven, featuring contributions by Tony Clarkin (Magnum), Richard Tandy (ELO) and the late Carl Wayne (The Move). Dave fronted a live orchestra performance of Earth Rise in 2019 and is currently dusting off some vintage songs and collaborations with other Birmingham musicians from his archive to share with members of his Top Table fan club.

Now with his band MOrganisation (a 3 or 5 piece group) Dave's shows include his original songs plus rock 'n' roll classics and quintessential ELO hits. Other artists in the band are Alex Lowe (lead guitar) and Mandy Scott-Morgan (backing vocals and percussion) plus as required Alan Smith (keyboards), Jack Rosa (drums & cajon).
